The gangrape incident had occurred in a private college in Bihar's Nawada district, about 200 kilometres from Patna. His parents lodged a police complaint, later transferred to the district police station, a week later. Police said the attackers belong to the same group that had earlier forced the pair of male friends to delete the video. It was a well-planned attack, police said. Both students were slapped and kicked while the teacher in attendance turned a blind eye, two policemen said. They were beaten to a pulp and gang-raped repeatedly for a day and a half. While one of the three admitted to the crime, the other two remain on the run. The pair have been kept in separate cells since the investigation was launched. A case under the stringent IPC against all three accused has been registered. Youth wing of Rashtriya Janata Dal (RJD) had lodged a complaint against two of the accused, claiming that they were hired by the opposition party's youth wing to "take revenge" on the JD(U). The incident had taken place in Barai, a village in the Nawada district, on June 14. mms desi girls gangrape There was also an allegation that the principal of the hostel where the boys stayed had promised them a monthly stipend of Rs 1000 if they are able to "clear" the college. The boys had taken the help of a fellow student, who had helped them take a video with their mobile phone. The video shows the two boys and the hostel principal while they are engaging in sexual activity in a room. They were forced to delete the video by the hostel principal, who threatened to post the video on the internet if they did not clear the college, the police said. The hostel principal and the third accused were arrested on June 18, after the victim's father lodged a complaint with the police, they said. "When the videos were not cleared, the trio took the help of the hostel principal's brother, who promised to remove the video if the accused paid him Rs 2 lakh," a police officer said. During their interrogation, the boys said the principal had
