It is directed by Rakesh Roshan and produced by Vidhu Vinod Chopra under the production banner of Vinod Chopra's Zee Studios, Vinod Chopra Films, and Rakesh Roshan's RR Productions. The film stars Hrithik Roshan in the lead role. The film is an adaptation of the 2006 superhero film Superman Returns, which starred Brandon Routh. It is set in 2006 in New Delhi, where Roshan and Hrithik are searching for a kidnapped Hrithik's father, who holds the key to his superpowers. They encounter a corrupt detective, a flirtatious reporter, and a reformed criminal in the process. The film's music is composed by A. R. Rahman, and the lyrics are written by Javed Akhtar. The songs "Yeh Hai Kamaal Hai" and "Yaad Raha Hai" were particularly well received by critics and audiences. Hrithik Roshan said that he chose the name Krrish as it is easy to remember, and also because, "everybody is trying to make me a god, and I want to be Krishna." His intention was to create a superhero that is "a combination of many superheroes". After the release of Krrish, Hrithik was quoted saying, "This film has taken me back to my childhood. I had seen films like the Three Musketeers and The French Connection and the superpowers of those superheroes were my inspiration. It was the most memorable movie of my childhood. I could relate to the character." The concept was also inspired from a childhood friend named Uday Roshan, who gave Hrithik the role of Krrish after seeing him perform in a drama play. As a child, Hrithik idolised Rajesh Khanna, who portrayed the role of Raj in the film.
