You will need to add the Factory Library to the library in order to add the FX and presets that are inside the Library. You can also select the Kontakt 5 Factory Library when you load your instrument in Kontakt 5. If you're using a certain DAW, you can also use the Kontakt 5 Factory Library with that DAW. I have the factory library activated, but I can only see the Amps and such that are included in the factory library. I can access the other sounds that I bought in the store, but I can't see the samples themselves. A: To activate the full Factory Library, you must install the Kontakt Factory Library and the Factory Selection Plugin. The Factory Selection Plugin and the Kontakt Factory Library are not required when you activate the Factory Library from within the Kontakt Player. I was able to select and play the Kontakt 5 Factory Library from within the Kontakt 5 Player. It was activated and all of the included FX and samples were present and accessible. However, I found that the samples played using the Kontakt 5 Player were not as clean as the samples played using the NI Komplete Kontrol S48. I had to re-activate the Factory Library from within the Kontakt 5 Player to get the results I was after. The old security can be 2d92ce491b
