You may remember Adobe's PixelBlend, which comes pre-installed on your Adobe Creative Cloud. PixelBlend takes a photo, then blends the colors in it. PixelBlend is highly useful for replacing pixels in an image, as it does not get rid of any edges. Since PixelBlend is useless for replacing pixels, if you want to remove pixels without losing edges, you'd need to get ProBlend, which does exactly that. ProBlend Price: A single license for ProBlend costs $29.99. If you want to purchase a ProBlend for multiple computers, you can get them for $59.99.
