Finding: The Data-Driven Mind | Simple software for Data-Driven Lawyers Kathleen M. Dennison - Simple Software Solutions Writing has always been a way for me to process everything, it is like my meditation for going through life, time, and experiences. I have always been fascinated by the Human Mind. Through the times, I have observed a lot of data driven people and I have noticed that they are at least two things, they know more than most people out there on earth know, and they have incredible logical thinking. I have always been one who has always wanted to interact with the other side of the brain, the right-brain, and it was through writing that I was able to open that door to the other side and learn more about myself. I have completed many courses and self-awareness courses.
