House Bill 1408 by state Rep. Jake Andresen (R) would require people to be 21 years old or older to possess a cellphone if they want to post nude or semi-nude photos. It was approved by the state House of Representatives on June 4 by an 88-0 vote. Andresen gave the bill his blessing and signed it during a bill-signing ceremony at a local veteran’s center, in which he spoke with several people and took a few pictures with a nearby crowd. However, a local CBS affiliate reported that Andresen also was shirtless when he signed the bill. Andresen said he told the legislator who signed the bill that he needs a shirt before he signed the bill. However, the Washington Times reported that the FBI has told the local sheriff’s office that Andresen has been indicted for the rape of a college student. Andresen will likely lose his House seat after a special election next year.Facial recognition systems are already able to tell when a person is lying. The type of lie detection a computer is looking for is more subtle, and may be able to catch liars at a distance. An experimental prototype of a lie detector was shown to good effect in the 2017 movie “A Quiet Place.” The computer was able to pick up on subtle facial changes
