day, we encounter people and places that are familiar, yet mysterious to us. We run into people who have lives that keep us busy but we wonder if we will see them again. In that moment, we wonder what could be the possibility of knowing what kind of lives these people lead. We are curious to know what paths these people followed that lead them to come to a point in their lives where we met them. In this moment, we wonder if we will see them again in our life. Do we want to know more about them? At the same time, we are people too. We have our own lives and keep busy with our own daily responsibilities. We get tired when we do not have a break in our daily routine. We know what we want. We are passionate about our goals and dream to make it as a successful person. We want to make a mark in our lives and careers. We want to make something good that no one has achieved before. We want to make a difference in this world. We have a passion to make this world a better place to live. We are blessed and we are grateful for the life we have today. We are passionate about what we do in our lives and we hope to inspire people around us. We want to make a difference by being a better person through the things we do. We want to make changes in this world by starting something that makes a better and a brighter world for future generations. We want to know what we can do for the world. So how can we change the world? How can we make a difference in people lives and inspire them? We have no easy answer. We are not sure if it is possible to solve the world's problems. Yet, we are positive in our intentions. We are passionate in our pursuits in life. We are committed to leave our mark in this world and make a difference in the lives of the people around us. Every day, we encounter people and places that are familiar, yet mysterious to us. We run into people who
